The water situation is serious. Leaks should be stopped and the use of hose is forbidden. Water and Light Com'rs.

A. A. Kendall Dies Suddenly

Albert A. Kendall, a civil war veteran and well-known resident of Morrisville, was found dead in his bed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas on Maple street, where he has boarded for several months, at about 9 o'clock this forenoon. He had not been in his usual health for the past year and for the last few weeks had complained more or less of his heart. He was out yesterday afternoon and consulted a physician. He retired early last night and the family heard him get up once or twice in the night. This morning, when he did not get up at the usual time the family thought he had had a restless night and did not call him. At nine o'clock Mr. Thomas went to his room and found that he had passed away. A physician arrived soon after and thought that death had taken place about two hours previously. His daughter, of St. Louis, Miss Ella, who is visiting her brother in Elmore, has been at the Thomas home for several days. He was 70 years of age and leaves a wife and six children. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Circus Tomorrow

Robbin's circus will show on the Smalley grounds north of the Catholic church on Brooklyn street tomorrow. The show appeared in Lewiston, Me., July 1, and received flattering notice from the press of that city.

Swanton Visitors

Twenty-three of the enterprising business men of Swanton came to Morrisville by automobile last Friday to inspect the municipal lighting and power plant at Cady's Falls. The trip was made by automobiles, the company being made up as follows:—A. G. Webster, Secretary of Swanton Board of Trade; M. O'Day, R. E. Colomb and C. W. D. Prouty, Trustees; C. W. Parker, Supt. of Village Water Department; D. M. Tobin of the Swanton Courier, Rev. M. Van Burt, C. E. Hall, F. H. Brown, C. L. Stipphen, Roy W. Joslyn, L. A. LaPell, M. H. Hungerford, Orlo Warner, Dr. E. A. Burnett, Village President; C. L. Smith, J. H. Morrison, A. B. Bellows, C. A. Webster, Dr. C. E. Allen, F. W. French and John Bernadini. They were welcomed to Morrisville by a large party of citizens and were shown through the power plant, securing suggestions for the handling and development of their own plant at Swanton. They also visited the cottages of the summer resort on the lake, maintained by Dr. Slayton.

Death of Former Resident

Julia N. Sheldon, a former resident of Morrisville, died June 29, 1915, aged 44 years and 23 days, at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. L. Labounty, Revere, Mass. Deceased is survived by three sisters, Mrs. F. W. Morrison of Lowell, Mass., Mrs. E. F. Labounty and Lettie C., of Revere, Mass., and two brothers, John H. of Newport, Vt., and Charles E. of Lowell. Funeral services were held at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Morrison, Thursday afternoon, with burial at Lowell, Mass. The bearers were Charles E. Sheldon, F. W. Morrison, Frank Field and S. J. Owen, all of Lowell, Mass.

Miss Esther Bacon went to North Hero last Wednesday.

Dr. W. D. Grout of Waterbury was a visitor in town Saturday.

Judd Ihey and wife of Alburg are guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Ellis.

Mrs. Geo. M. Powers and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, went to Burlington last Wednesday for a few days with the former's mother, Mrs. U. A. Woodbury.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Caswell of the west part of town have been entertaining the former's sister, Mrs. N. J. Nye of Cambridge.

Miss Grace Russ of Stowe was a guest last week of her aunt, Mrs. Minnie Smalley. She left Thursday for Cliff Haven, N. Y., where she will spend the summer.

Ira Ober, having sold his farm in Johnson, has hired out to work for C. F. Smith and he and his family have moved into the tenement house on the Laporte farm.

Guy Kneeland is enjoying a vacation from his duties in the A. R. Campbell jewelry store and is spending the time with relatives and friends in Boston and vicinity. He will visit his sister, Mrs. D. J. Thomas, at Turners Falls and will be accompanied to Morrisville by Mrs. Thomas and children.

THE EARLE STORE

Rain Coat Special

We bought too many rain coats, and as a consequence are obliged to make a sacrifice on the prices to clean them up. It makes a good chance for the prudent buyer to save some money. The prices range as follows: 8.00 coats now 6.00; 7.00 coats now 5.00; 5.00 coats now 3.75; 4.50 coats now 3.50; 4.00 coats now 3.00.

Sale of Wash Goods Remnants

As usual at this time of the year we find a good many short lengths of all kinds of wash goods. They come handy for waists and children's clothes and are quite a saving in price. See if there isn't something you want.

New Goods Arriving

We have some more of the navy blue gaberdene that has been so popular with us this season. This is to remind those people who are waiting.

Neckwear In Variety

Will be in this week, also another lot of those handsome and popular 50c girdles, all colors.

Get the little girl one of those small colored parasols for circus day. It will be part of their pleasure.

Mrs. Minorra R. Lewis

The following obituary notice is taken from the Wilmington (Delaware) Morning News of June 19:—

Mrs. Minorra Richards Lewis, mother of Mrs. Herbert H. Ward, died yesterday afternoon at the home of her son-in-law, Fifth and Rodney streets, this city. Mrs. Lewis has been in poor health for some months, but her sickness did not develop a serious phase until a few weeks ago. She was a woman of strong and lovable characteristics and she was possessed of a fund of humor, spiced with caustic wit, that made her always a most interesting companion. But her kindness of heart and her ever-ready hand of helpfulness were the dominant notes of her character and, by these she will be long remembered. She had a host of friends, who will deeply mourn her death. She was 75 years old to a day, having died on the anniversary of her birth.

Mrs. Lewis was a daughter of the late Henry H. and Diana (Richards) Stone of Eden and a sister of Mrs. G. A. Barrows of Morrisville. She had many friends in this vicinity, having spent several summers with her sister and with the Wards at The Randall in the past 20 years.

HYDE PARK

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Savery were in Burlington to-day.

R. S. Page and Fred Ransom were in Essex yesterday.

O. O. Morse and wife of Hardwick were in town Tuesday.

Professor Simpson is attending the summer school at Johnson.

Miss Vera Fullington has been enjoying a short visit at Quebec.

Miss Retta Nutting visited relatives in Stowe several days last week.

Mrs. Harry Titus of Hardwick visited Mrs. Erwin Lilley last Saturday.

Miss Mabel Burnham has gone to Sugar Hill, N. H., where she has employment.

Miss Lizzie Young of St. Albans is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Young.

Mrs. Chas. Nutting has returned from her visit to Connecticut and Massachusetts.

J. C. Crowley and family from Worcester, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Crowley's father, Dennis Fimegan.

We do not publish anonymous communications. We want the news, but there must be authority for every item.

A party of Canadians, six of them, have been in town the past few days looking over towns with a view of purchasing.

Among the auto arrivals at the Inn last Friday was a $7,500 Pierce-Arrow limousine, by far the handsomest car that has ever struck these parts.

Fred Wood, with John Gray and his auto, went to the Fanny Allen Hospital to-day for his wife, who has been there eight weeks. She returns some better.

Col. McFarland, R. W. Hulburd and Ben. Hulburd were visitors in Burlington Monday.

Miss Sadie Gregg is spending a few days in camp with the Badger family at Joe's Pond.

Hyde Park had a large representation at the Johnson celebration and everybody had a good time.

E. E. Badger and wife and Master Glenn are spending a few weeks at their camp at Joe's Pond.

Miss Gertrude Smith of Highgate is spending a few days here with her sister, Miss Carolyn Smith.

H. E. Holbrook and family and Mrs. Reba Abbott and Miss Mabel Collins were visitors in Burlington last Sunday.

Mrs. George Lanpher and children from Woodsville, N. H., are in town, spending a few weeks at the home of H. B. Lanpher.

Miss Sara Chapin and her guests were visitors on Mt. Mansfield the first of the week. They report a delightful trip and fine views.

Chas. Goddard and wife and Miss Helen Waterman and two young lady school teachers from Everett, Mass., visited Anasable Chasim to-day.

Miss Jeanette Chapin of Essex, and A. F. Chapin and Miss M. Booth of New York, have been guests several days of Miss Sara Chapin at this place.

All services at the Cong'l church are suspended until about the middle of August. Rev. Mr. Hamlin, the pastor, left Monday on his annual vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Putnam were visitors in Newbury the first of the week, going Sunday and returning Monday. Ben. Atwell, who has been here for about a week, went with them, but did not return.

Edw. Godette and family were at Charlotte a few days recently, going down to have part in the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Seguin, parents of Mrs. Godette. The event was a very pleasant one.

Judge and Mrs. J. S. Leach have gone to their camp at Mallett's Bay for a few weeks' outing. Miss Blond Seymour went with them and is spending a few days there. On her return she will go to Lake Eden for a few weeks' outing.

Wm. Collins of Johnson was brought to the county jail last Saturday by Sheriff Towne, who arrested him at Rochester, N. Y., charged with deserting his family of wife and five children, having for two years neglected to pay the weekly stipend imposed upon him by the court for their maintenance. Requisition papers for his arrest were necessary and they were promptly honored by Gov. Whitman of New York at Albany, to which place the sheriff had to go and obtain them before making the arrest.
